

Phil Hughes

Comedy Ventriloquist Phil Hughes began a lifetime in entertainment at the age of six. He embarked on a full-time career in entertainment in 1985. Since then, his show has taken him to all seven continents including over 70 countries.

Phil began his career in schools, performing shows centered on reading, math and geography. Later, he moved into the adult market, staying out of clubs until he could perform a show that was funny, yet clean. He wanted to be sure his show was solid enough so he wouldn't feel the need to delve into rude material in order to get a cheap laugh. In this way Phil's show evolved into a uniquely funny, non-offensive show.

This process served Phil, and most importantly his audience, well. His show is perfect for a corporate function. His clients love the entertainment he provides, since they don't have to worry about his material. He can and does work clean, at the same time his material is unique, funny, and the audience participation will bring your fellow workers, organization members or fellow convention attendees into the show with hilarious results.

In 2000 Phil brought his show to colleges through the National Association of Campus Activities, otherwise known as NACA. His show was enjoyed on college campuses all over the country. He has taken his show to fairs and festivals throughout the country as well. His largest audience over the years has to be on the cruise ships where he has had the honor of performing. He had been performing on cruise ships since 1998, performing on Holland America, Norwegian Cruise Line, Celebrity Cruise Line, Princess Cruises, Orient Line, Silver Sea and others.

All this experience makes Phil perfect for any corporate event, convention, or private event. Phil can make your event a memorable and positive one, without the worry. What you don't want is to have your event memorable for the wrong reasons. Comedy entertainment for private organizations, corporate events or conventions is difficult, you must entertain without offending. Phil is a master of this type of performance. Why take a chance with someone who isn't? Book Phil Hughes for your next event, your audience with thank you.

"Working with a professional like Phil takes a great deal of stress out of coordinating an entertaining corporate event. Most importantly our guests loved the show. We are still receiving compliments."

"Guest said their stomach hurt for hours from laughing...I personally think you were the best entertainment we have had and I don't believe we will ever be able to top your act...The rest of the guys will probably kill me if I don't have you back!"
